EDINBURGH from CORSTORPHINE HILL.

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

The Corstorphine Hill, is situated about a mile and a half Westward from the centre of Edinburgh, although the City has of late years stretched out so as almost to include the district, the rural foreground makes a charming setting to the beautiful City. From the Look Out Tower on this height known as the "Kest and be Thankful", can be obtained one of the finest views of Edinburgh and its environs.

The card you sent was lovely. Can you find me some others. I have sent for them for my album. Don't think I have been here, but I think it is so pretty
